

One sheet per pet. The chip number, the shots, the vets, and the meds, copied off the vet's paperwork, so the next time a boarder or groomer asks for proof, it's on the fridge. Check off each station you finish for a ticket.

PET'S NAME
And any name the vet has them under

SPECIES + BREED
As it's written on the vet paper

BIRTHDAY
Or the day they came home

COLOR + MARKINGS
What you'd tell someone looking

#	STATION	WHAT IT COVERS	DONE ON	DONE
1	ID + MICROCHIP The numbers	Chip number, where it's registered, rabies tag and license Don't know the chip number? Ask your vet's office when you call	DATE	☐
2	VACCINE PROOF Copy it off the paper	Each shot, the day it was given, and the day it's due again Write it exactly as the vet wrote it. Then note where the paper is	DATE	☐
3	VET CONTACTS Regular + emergency	Your vet, the closest emergency vet, and your pet's ID at the clinic Look up the emergency vet now, not at 2am	DATE	☐
4	MEDS + CARE For whoever's watching	Medicines and doses, food, and anything a sitter has to know No meds? Write "none" and the station still counts	DATE	☐

1 · ID + MICROCHIP

Got a second chip? It happens. Use the dashed box.

MICROCHIP
One digit per box. Chips have 9, 10 or 15 digits

4 · MEDS + CARE

Whatever a sitter has to know to keep things normal.

MEDICINE	HOW MUCH	WHEN	REFILL BY

FOOD + QUIRKS
What they eat, how much, and anything odd. Scared of thunder, escapes the yard, hates the mail carrier

STATIONS DONE - / 4
One ticket per station you finish, so four tickets for the sheet. "None" still counts as an answer.
